WANT ARMOR PLANT

Resolution Introduced in Board of Aldermen for Officials to Cooperate With Others.

There was but a slim attendance at common council last night and but few matters came up for consideration and there was no debate and the session was a short one.

A resolution of Alderman C. J. W.
Summers that a committee of five members from city council, three from the common council and two from the board of aldermen, be appointed to co-operate with similar committees from the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants' Association in an effort to induce the government to locate its proposed armor plant here was adopted.

It is provided that the committee shall also be composed of the mayor and presidents of each branch of council.

President Smith named on the committee Councilman Nicholas J. Lawler, C. S. Taylor Burke and A. J.
Pohl, and in the board of aldermen President Field named Aldermen C.
J. W. Summers and George H. Robinson.

A resolution of Councilman C. S.
Taylor Burke that the acting corporation attorney be requested to draw an ordinance conferring the same powers, and defining them, that are conferred by the state on the local boards of health. This was referred to the health committee.

Petition of the board of directors of the Children's Home asking for an appropriation of $300 to aid its work for the coming year was referred to the finance committee.

Ordinance granting the Southern Railway Company permission to lay a side track on Henry street between Oronoco and Madison streets, to connect with plant of National Fruit Product Company, was referred to the street committee.

A petition signed by the merchants calling attention of council to the bad condition of Belgian block on Union Street between Princecess and Wolfe street, especially beside the railroad track, and asking that it be improved, was referred to the street committee.

Permission was granted De Wilton Aitchison to erect a coal pit on Union street between Prince and Duke Sts.
Permission was granted William Becker to rebuild shed on Fayette street between Prince and Duke Sts.

Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Robley D. Brumbaugh, who represented common council from the second ward, offered by Councilman Howard W. Smith, president of the lower branch, were unanimously adopted and ordered spread upon the minutes.

HUGHES AND HIS WHISKERS.

Republican Candidate's Hirsute Ap-pendage Must Not Be Attacked

St. Louis, June 14.—There are to be no more attacks upon Justice Hughes' whiskers. There are to be no more personalities of any kind.
President Wilson has sent what amounts to a "strict accountability" ultimatum to the leaders. He is not pleased with the frivolities of some of the Democrats.

From what is learned he has let it be known very positively that the Democratic campaign, now and after the convention, is to be one of issues, not personalities, and the line should be drawn at once.

President Wilson also let it be known that the plank criticizing the "raiding of the judiciary" by politics must be dropped.

BRYAN'S ATTITUDE

Commoner Believes Wilson Will Run Second Next November

St. Louis, June 14.—William Jennings Bryan believes Hughes will be elected. That is the real reason behind the commoner's announcement that he will take no part in this year's proceedings of the Democratic convention.

He will not even appear before the resolutions committee to urge the various planks on prohibition, peace, and an arms embargo he is known to favor. He considers that it would be futile to put hurdles before a horse that will only run second anyway.

Close friends of Mr. Bryan declare that his course would have been different had Roosevelt been nominated. He believes that Wilson could easily have defeated the colonel. Had Roosevelt been the Republican candidate, Bryan intended to force a fight for Democratic planks on the subjects he has been advocating. Now however, he admits that they would be too heavy a load for Wilson to carry.

"Are you going to urge any particular planks in the platform before the resolutions committee?" Mr.
Bryan was asked.

"I am not," he declared positively.
"I have my views on these issues and generally they are well known. I may even think that to do some things would be wise, and to do others would be unwise, but I shall take no part in the deliberations of the committee, nor shall I attempt to influence its members. I think this year when I am not the candidate I should respect the rights of the man who is, and let him have the platform represent his views, not those I might think would be better, either from a moral or political viewpoint."

ARMY DEMOBILIZED

Greek King Said to Have Left Athens Fearing Riots

Athens, June 13.—King Constantine decided yesterday to order the complete demobilization of the Greek army.

The offices of the newspapers which have supported former Premier Venizelos were made the objects of a hostile demonstration yesterday. The demonstrators were composed mainly of those who had been spectators earlier at a horse show in the stadium which was attended by King Constantine and the royal family.

'King Constantine had pressed into the palace ten minutes before the disturbance.

The trouble had its inception in the act of an humbly clad individual, who cried out that the applause for the sovereign at the horse show was paid for by a German agent. He was promptly seized by the police.

The incident created excitement which kept up for two hours. Then the attacks on the Venizelist newspapers began, the mob stoning the windows and shouting "long live the king!"

The demobilization of the Greek army follows the blockade of the ports of Greece by the allies and the ships in British and French ports.
The steps were taken as a result of the occupation of Greek fortresses in Macedonia by Bulgaria at the end of May.

Rome, June 14.—The correspondent of the Sun News Service is informed through diplomatic channels that King Constantine, of Greece, has left Athens for Larissa, as a precaution, because he fears that there may be a revolution in Greece. From Larissa he will be able to seek refuge in Monastir.

POLICE COURT.

(Justice H. B. Caton presiding)

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Hotel, charged with keeping his saloon open on election night, had his case continued until next Wednesday without a license, was dismissed with the understanding that he would pay for the time he has been practising.

Roy Fletcher, colored, charged with assaulting Ann Johnson, colored, was dismissed, the complainant failing to appear.

James Pearson, charged with begging on the streets, was dismissed.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Delegates and Leaders of Party Assemble in St.
Louis Today.

ASKS FOR MARSHALL

President Wilson Sends Word That He Wants Present Vice President Renominated.

St. Louis, Mo., June 14.—The national Democratic convention which is to name Woodrow Wilson for President and Thomas Riley Marshall for Vice President met in its first session at 10 o'clock this morning.

Secretary of War Newton D.
Baker arrived in St. Louis last night with the platform. He brought the intimate opinions of the President. Baker announced definitely that the President did not want any plank denouncing Hughes for deserting the Supreme Court to enter into the campaign. He also surprised the delegates by announcing that he was for suffrage.

William J. Bryan promised not to start anything. He will take the stump for the ticket this fall, and promises he will let Mr. Wilson make his own platform without any suggestion or opposition.

Led by A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, an aggressive fight has been started against the proposed platform attack on Justice Hughes for deserting his post on the Supreme Court bench at the call of high political ambition. Palmer will carry the fight to the floor of the convention if necessary. Senator Stone, its sponsor, gave up his fight for it yesterday afternoon.

"As an answer to the charges which they believe will be made against their candidate, the Wilson spokesmen promise that the administration intends to make a more aggressive attitude against Great Britain; to keep the United States troops in Mexico all the summer and to favor many of the "social justice" planks in the Progressive platform.

President Wilson has notified some of his followers, over the long distance telephone, that he wants Marshall as Vice-President. This virtually disposes of opposition Vice Presidential booms.

The Roger Sullivan candidacy is not to be taken seriously. A new aspirant appeared yesterday in the person of George Hughes of Denver, who is brought forward by the Colorado delegates on theory that a Western man is needed to strengthen the ticket, geographically. Utah is with Colorado in support of Hughes, but will not figure conspicuously in the campaign.

The woman suffrage plank is upon a real suffrage plank as opposed to the straddling declaration adopted by the Republicans. They have told the delegates that the vote of ten States are in the balance and that these will be swung to the Democrats if they can get a national suffrage plank.
Present indications are that they will get the same plank that was passed in Chicago. This was admitted by Senator Stone, who will be chairman of the resolutions committee.

CIRCUS SEERS BREAK CAR.

One of Six Is Killed When Auto Wheel Collapses

Altoona, Pa., June 14.—One man was killed and two others were hurt when a wheel of an automobile collapsed at Allegheny Furnace, near here last night. The dead man is Samuel Stonerook, 50, blacksmith, of Woodbury, Pa.

There were six men in the little car, all from Woodbury. They had come here to see a circus performance, and after supper had started for home.
The heavy load placed to severe a strain on the wheel, and one gave way on a sharp turn.

Stonerook was pitched out head-foremost against a telegraph pole.
His skull was crushed and he died instantly. All the others were thrown out, the car turning over.

RUNS AFLAME FOR HELP

Girl Fatally Burned When She Reaches Neighbors.

Hagerstown, June 14.—Madge, 16 year old daughter of Felice Ferrari, near Salem, was burned, perhaps fat-tally, while she and her sister, Mary, were starting a fire in a stove at their home with was burned, with contents. Mary was burned about the hands and shoulders, but will recover.

Her sister, Madge, with her clothes afire, ran an eighth of a mile across a plowed field and through an orchard and dropped unconscious in front of the house of H. L. McIntyre. With the exception of a portion of her corset, every garment was burned from her body. The corset steels were burned into her flesh. Parts of her body were so badly scorched that the flesh dropped from the bones. She is in a dying condition in the King's Daughters' Hospital at Martinsburg.

HE'S MOSES REINCARNATED

New York, June 14.—Declaring that he is the "reincarnation of Moses" and the "King of Divine Healers," the Rev. Francis Schlatter yesterday defended his activities as a healer in an effort to prevent his removal to Los Angeles to be tried on a Federal indictment charging use of the mails to defraud. He took the stand in his own defense after several witnesses had testified before United States Commissioner Haughton that they had been miraculously cured by him.

Schlatter asserted he was born with the power of divine healing. He explained that he used a "blessed Handkerchief," which he advertised would effect cures, "only as John and Peter used blessed aprons."

Bishop August Schrader and Rev. August Algard, of Oakland, Cal., who also are wanted in California on the same charge, he described respectively as a "prince and ambassador of God" and his secretary.
Schlatter admitted that he sent out letters asking for offerings because, he said, "the ravens will not feed us."

The hearing was adjourned June 21, when a postoffice inspector from Los Angeles will testify.

Washington, June 14.—Owing to increases of from 100 to 300 per cent in the cost of living in European capitals since the war began, Secretary of State Lansing has asked Congress for an additional appropriation of $75,000.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo sent to the House yesterday an estimate submitted by Mr. Lansing providing for this additional appropriation to be used at his discretion in increasing the pay of diplomatic officers in belligerent capitals.

ber of the congregation participated,

DISASTROUS CONFLAGRATION

Fire in Grain Elevator in Baltimore Causes
Great Loss

TEN PERSONS PERISH

Greatest Catastrophe Which Has Visited Monumental City During Past Twelve Years.

Baltimore, June 14.—Fire at the Northern Central Railroad grain elevator, No. 33, at Canton, yesterday afternoon, resulted in one of the greatest catastrophes Baltimore has suffered for several years.

A number of men met horrible deaths in the flames. The exact number may never be told, but the lowest estimates place the list of dead at 10. Three bodies have been found, nine men are known to be missing and one man is expected to die in the Mercy Hospital as the result of his burns.

Fully half a hundred more of the workmen were severely injured and the majority of these were carried to Baltimore hospitals in police ambulances, on railroad trains and on street cars. Some are seriously burned and may roll up the list of fatalities.

The elevator was destroyed with all the grain in it.

Two ships lying off the elevator were heavily damaged by the flames, many men being injured on one of them. A third ship, lying off the ore pier adjoining the elevator, suffered a slight loss.

The grain pier is a total loss and the ore pier is heavily damaged.

No official of the railroad nor any employee of the elevator can tell definitely the cause of the fire. Just before the flames broke out on the second floor—or second tier of bins—of the elevator, there was heard an explosion, followed by the blowing out of the tiled side of the elevator at that point. The theory that a bomb caused this has been advanced and will be investigated.

Another theory is that of spontaneous combustion.

Many incidents of heroism enobled the tragedy of the fire. Tugboat captains steamed hurriedly to the pier and made heroic efforts to pull the steamers away, and also, with the aid of other craft, saved the lives of many men who jumped from the elevator into the water.

Several women, the majority of them unable to speak English, crowded about the pier crying frantically their husbands and fathers were employed in the elevator, and probably were among the missing.

BABY BURIED ALIVE.

Little One Unearthed After Having Been in Grave Eleven Hours.

Atlanta, Ga., June 14.—None the worse for having been buried alive in a cemetery in Adairville, near here, "The Baby"—that's all the name she has—is smiling and cooing her way into the hearts of the matron and nurses of the Methodist Orphanage at Decatur.

And while every comfort is being provided for the babe, its mother—a country girl who must pay the price of unwedded motherhood—is in a dismal cell charged with assault with intent to murder.

The girl-mother, sought no friend or mother's counsel when she knew the event of birth was at hand. Instead, she made her way to the lonely cemetery and brought her baby into the world.

For one mad, ecstatic hour she held the tiny form to her breast, then crawled away to an empty burial plot, and, with trembling hands, scooped out a shallow grave. She placed a handkerchief over her baby's face and laid it in the grave. Then she scraped the fresh, soft soil over the baby's nude body and crept home.
Eleven hours later ten young men passing the cemetery heard the lusty cries of a baby. They hurried to the tiny mound and unearthed the child.

WILSON AT WEST POINT.

Says When America Speaks She Means What She Says.

West Point, N. Y., June 14.—Addressing the graduating class at the United States Military Academy here yesterday, President Wilson touched on almost all the subjects discussed by former Justice Hughes in his telegram accepting the Republican nomination, and alluded to Americanism, militarism, preparedness, peace, war, and other topics or pressing interest.

He told the graduates that they faced "many extraordinary possibilities" because no one could tell what the immediate future is going to be, either in the history of this country or in the history of the world. It is the present imperative duty of America to be prepared, he said, to see that nobody mars the civilization she has built up, and, being safe itself against interference from the outside, he added, "all its force is going to be behind its moral idea, and mankind is going to know that when America speaks she means what she says."

AIRMEN ATTACK VENICE.

Arsenal and Locomotive Sheds Hit, Austrians Report

Behlin, June 14.—A squadron of Austrian aeroplanes attacked Venice Sunday night. Several other points in northern Italy were bombarded.
An official Austrian report of June 12 says the raid was successful. The announcement follows:

"A squadron of naval air craft on the night of June 11-12 bombarded extensively and with visible success the railroad tracks on the line between Mestre (five miles northwest of Venice) and San Dona Di Piave and the railroad station at Mestre.
They obtained several full hits on a locomotive shed. The arsenal at Venice also was bombarded."

Notwithstanding a heavy fire directed at them, all the aeroplanes returned unharmed."

ITALIAN ARMIES ADVANCE

Rome, June 14.—The Italian armies today took the offensive all along the Trentino front, making general advances. This movement, it is understood, is to be a powerful attack, timed simultaneously with the Russian offensive and the reported withdrawal of Austrian troops from the Trentino.

MAY JOIN ALLIES.

London, June 14.—The prospect of Roumania joining with the allies in the war against the central powers is growing daily with the advance of the Russian armies in the Bukovina, according to reports in diplomatic circles here.

The sympathies of Roumania are said to be pronouncedly with the allies. She has been holding off due to her economic dependence on Germany.

HINDENBURG FAILS

Assaults in Riga Sector Do Not Divert Blows of Muscovites Farther to the North.

Petrograd, June 14.—The great struggle in Bukovina and Galicia has reached a critical point for the Austrians.

Important Russian victories yesterday on the outskirts of Czernowitz and along the Dniester, southeast of Bucacz, have added greatly to the menace against Lemberg, have virtually assured the fall of the fortress capital of Bukovina, and threaten to open the rich Galician plains to the swiftly moving forces of the Czar.

General Brusiloff's troops have swept across the Dniester and have captured practically every fortified position in their path, including Zale Szczky, one of the most important positions on that line of fortification.
In this region and to the north the disorganized Austrian forces are retreating as swiftly as the Russians are advancing.

London, June 14.—Lemberg, capital of Galicia, is threatened from three sides by the Russian armies under Gen. Brusiloff, whose smashing advance in Volhynia, Galicia and the Bukovina continued without substanc-ial check during the last twenty-four hour, despite the German forces rushed from the north. Field Marshal van Hindenburg's apparent hauling out for a general offensive on the Riga-Dvinsk front has thus far failed to exert any influence upon the Russian drive in the south.

Czernowitz, capital of the Bukowina, is being masked by the extreme left wing of the Muscovite armies, and its fall is only a matter of hours.

Russian cavalry already is on Snaity, twenty miles northeast of Czernowitz, according to official admission by Vienna. The Austrian war office also reports the presence of Cossacks in Sadagora, only three miles northeast of Czernowitz.
The Zale Szczky point of support, and one of the most important positions on the Dniester line of fortifications, also comes within the zone now threatened by the extreme southern flank of the Russian forces, and surrounded as it now is by the advancing Russians, it is in an equally critical situation.

The two other most important sectors of the front, extending from Pripiet River to Roumania, are the region south of Lutsk and north of Tarnopol. From the reports of the precipitate Austrian retreat from the former region it is inferred here that the Austrians were compelled to relinquish their most important position on the Ikwa front—the Torogovitsa fortification, which is located at the junction of the Ikwa and Sty Rivers.

The occupied position is of the greatest strategic value.

BEHEADED BY MOTOR TRUCK.

Man Falls Off his Machine in Collision and Rolls Under Wheels.

Philadelphia, June 14.—Topping off his bicycle when he bumped into a pedestrian at 34th and Walnut streets, yesterday Charles Bedrosian, 28 years old, rolled under the rear wheels of a five-ton motor truck and was beheaded. The driver of the truck, William Kienzie, failed to notice the fatal accident and did not stop his truck until two policemen jumped off a passing trolley and placed him under arrest. Magistrate Harris held him without bail to await the action of the coroner.

SUNDAY CLOSING LAW

Drastic "Blue Statute" Will Cause Shut Down of Many Places of Business.

Alexandria druggists are preparing to observe the Sunday closing law in its fullest extent next Sunday when the enforcement by the police of the drastic "blue laws" will be attempted. At a meeting of the retail druggists of the city yesterday it was decided to only fill prescriptions on Sunday and to keep their stores open only during certain hours of the day. The soda water fountains will be shut down, cigar cases locked and the sale of all articles except necessary drugs dispensed with.

Chief of Police Goods was busy yesterday advising the merchants that the law would be enforced on Sunday and any violations of the act would result in the offender being brought before police court on Monday.

VIRGINIA NEWS

B. F. Ginther, business manager of the Union Star, a Socialist paper, of Brookneal, and himself a Socialist leader, was elected Mayor of Brookneal, yesterday defeating R. P. Conolly. Ginther has the distinction of being the first Socialist ever elected Mayor of a Virginia town.

Confronted by the Virginia oyster law, which becomes effective next Sunday, the authorities of Bristol take the view that they cannot do otherwise than enforce the "blue" law and any and all other laws upon the statute books. "If the 'blue' law is unpopular," said Mayor George M. Warren, in commenting on this subject, "it is up to the legislature to repeal it. The same is true with reference to all laws. We, as officials, have no choice in the matter; we must enforce the laws."

Treasurers of counties and cities in Virginia have the right to seize and sell vessels in the waters of this state, when owned in the state, for taxes due thereon. Such is the ruling made by Assistant Attorney General Garnett. Though the vessels are registered in the federal custom houses, they are not in any way affected, so far as the state is concerned, in securing the revenue on such property. Mr. Garnett says the case in point arose in Mathews county.

George Lam, 24 years old, shot himself through the heart Monday at Lydia, Greene county, half a mile across the Rockingham line. Lam went into his house took the wedding ring from his wife's finger, slipped it on his own finger and then kissed his wife, saying "I am going to settle some trouble." A hundred yards from the house he discharged a double-barrel gun into his heart. Lam's wife was Miss Julia Dean. They were married a year ago and later separated, but it was thought they had adjusted their differences.

Edicts are going forth in Virginia cities for enforcement of the letter of all statutes, including the so-called Sunday Blue laws, in preparation for going into effect at midnight Saturday of the new State oyster act providing for the removal of officials who fail to carry out the laws. On Sunday drug stores will be allowed to sell medicines only, tobacco and soft drink places and automobile garages will be closed, and in some cities the authorities are threatening to prohibit the printing or sale of newspapers.

In an automobile accident yesterday afternoon near Suffolk, Capt. W. H. Collins, of Norfolk, was fatally injured and Cleveland S. Taylor was badly hurt. Capt. Collins lost control of the roadster, in which he was en route to Suffolk, the machine going over an embankment and turning turtle. He died an hour after the accident in a local hospital. Taylor may recover.

ELECT ENTIRE TICKET

Only Seven Hundred and Fifteen Cast in Yesterday's Primary.

Only 715 votes were cast in yesterday's election and the entire Democratic ticket was elected. Thomas Chauncey, republican, in the fourth ward and A. D. Deaton, independent in the second ward, who were candidates for council only receiving a few votes each.

Mayor Fisher was re-elected for a term of four years which will commence on September 1st.

As a result of the election Councilman Harrison, one of the oldest members of the common council, goes to the board of Aldermen, Councilman Howard W. Smith is transferred from the second to the first ward and Councilman H. R. Burke was transferred from the first to the third ward and there will be two new faces in the lower board, George H. Evans from the first ward and Jerome Kaufman from the second ward. Both of these will commence their terms on September 1st, but it is probable that Kaufman will be elected at the next meeting of council to fill the unexpired term of R. D. Frumback, deceased.

The vote by wards in yesterday's election follow: First Ward, Fisher 124; for alderman, F. F. Marbury 122; for council, George H. Evans, 119; Howard W. Smith, 108.

Second ward, Fisher 207, for alderman, W. W. Ballenger, 206; for council, Henry K. Field, 195, Jerome Kaufman, 168; Andrew D. Deaton, 57.

Third ward Fisher, 117, for alderman, J. T. Harrison, 116, for council, A. J. Poh, 112, H. R. Burke, 116.

Fourth ward, Fisher, 267, for alderman, J. B. Fitzgerald, 258, for council, Albert Bryan, 239, Clinton S. Ballenger, 231; Thomas Chauncey 50.

Jesse W. Morris was elected mayor of the town of Potomac, between Alexandria and Washington, yesterday, over W. E. Kidwell, incumbent, by a vote of 25 to 22. John W. Varney, clerk, was re-elected over W. T. Ferrell, by a vote of 25 to 22. The Rev. O. C. Beall was elected treasurer without opposition, receiving 40 votes. For town sergeant Adolph E. West defeated J. A. Russell, incumbent, by a vote of 25 to 22. The following six were elected to council:

George R. McCauley, 38; Fred S. Morris, 25; Norval T. Ford, 24; Ernest R. Fegan, 23; George J. West, 23; Alvin R. Pennypacker, 23.

Defeated candidates and the votes they polled were as follows John R. Harding, 22; H. H. Powell, 22; Jacob Corl, 22; Robert M. Turner, 21; Joseph Lyles 20; W. T. Peverill, 5.

MANY WITNESS PARADE

Alexandrians Form Large Percentage of Floating Population of Washington Today.

Thousands of Alexandrians went to Washington this morning to witness the preparedness parade. Members of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans and of the order of Fraternal Americans, of this city, took part in the parade.

In addition to marching down Pennsylvania Avenue in the parade President Wilson commemorated Flag Day by speaking at the interdepartmental exercises of the Government clerks held on the Monument Grounds shortly after the end of the parade. When nearly 25,000 marchers from the departments ended their parade down the Avenue behind the President, many remained for the unique exercises in honor of the flag, which began at 3 o'clock.

A chorus of nearly 1,000 persons sang patriotic anthems, and as the President entered the stand, the Marine Band played "Hail to the Chief." Secretary of State Robert Lansing presided at the exercises. The audience, too, joined in the singing of "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

As a national salute was fired by the field artillery of the National Guard, a large American flag was raised slowly to the top of the Washington Monument. During the playing of the national anthem at the end of the exercises, it was slowly lowered.

ALLEGED VIOLATION OF LAW

Saloon Keeper Charged With Keeping His Place of Business Open on Election Night

Among the cases upon the docket of the Police Court this morning was that the proprietor of the Fleischman Hotel, who is charged with conducting business last night in violation of the law which provides for the closing of such places on election days. The police upon discovering the saloon to be open, and having every reason to believe liquor was being dispensed, made a descent upon the place and cited the proprietor and inmates to appear before the court this morning. When the case was called, Frederick P. Russell, counsel for the accused, asked that the case be allowed to go over until next Wednesday, and his request was granted and the case will come up at that time.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Ann Johnson, a colored woman, appeared at the station house a night or two ago with a deep cut in one of her arms which she alleged had been inflicted by a negro named Roy Fletcher. She stated that Fletcher came to her house and demanded admission. Upon being refused he forced his way in and threw a bottle at her, which struck her arm and made the deep wound which she exhibited. Fletcher was arrested and brought before the Police Court this morning, but the complainant could not be found and Fletcher was dismissed. This is but one of many similar cases which the police have to contend with and it is thought if such complainants were arrested and fined for contempt in failing to appear and press their charges the number would be materially reduced.

DOPE OF THE
STER LAW.

There can be no doubt either as to the responsibility for the scope of the oyster law, which is now causing so much perturbation among the people of every city in the commonwealth and which goes into effect next week with all its vexatious and plexities to upset the little usages of our complex civilization.

It is simply a law to provide for enforcement of laws already on the statute books. All this is made plain in the legislative records.

The Richmond Journal calls attention to the fact that the enforcement of the prohibition laws and the other "oral" acts of the legislature was most in the minds of the protection leaders in the senate last year, the real purpose being understood to compel the men who had large of law enforcement in "wet" communities to do their full duty in enforcing the state dry.

That was the belief of the men who favored the oyster law, and its provisions, applied only to them when they were considered for consideration.

During the discussion of the measure, to which there was manifest opposition on the part of some senators Senator Cannon, of Richmond, who opposed the prohibition movement, acted, called attention to the fact that it was making a clear-cut distinction and setting aside of certain persons for special duties — the enforcement of some laws and letting others go on unheeded. He said that it would be better to make the application of the law general, and if there were men who were not enforcing laws to subject them to its visions. Senator Mapp, in charge of the bill, said he did not object making the law general and readily accepted the amendment of Senator Cannon, and it was adopted.

Whatever may be said of the work of the last legislature, certain it is that the "oyster" law is a measure that carries a punch—a knockout wal-low—that has produced more complaints than even the prohibition itself.

When the latter was considered in house of delegates the broadened ster law was rejected. It went to the senate, that body insisting and the matter went to conference. That conference determined to ask the senate, and it was so reported, the members agreeing to the prohibitionists: free rein, as people had decided, and the headway it makes is so slow and intermittent that it is doubtful whether the gain

But the enforcement of the laws on Sunday, as many persons have read the law, is not the feature of the "oyster" law. The law calls for the rigid enforcement of the laws every day in the week. No new laws regarding the observance of the Sabbath have been added to the statutes. It merely calls attention to the officers of the state to the enforcement of all the laws every day in the year. That the officers have been lax in law enforcement on the Sabbath and caused the uproar among those who have either violated or encouraged its violation is undoubtedly true.

All the new laws of the state are effective on and after Saturday next, save and except such as are fixed by law for becoming operative on a fixed date. Ninety days following the final adjournment of the legislature is the constitutional time for the operation of all general laws.

QUESTIONS FOR
HUGHES TO ANSWER.

The exigencies of the Republican strategic position require of the party standard bearer emphatic denunciation of Democratic administration, and Mr. Hughes is enough of a politician promptly to respond to the demands of the situation.
Accordingly he states as he throws off the judicial robe (and with it the restraint imposed by the sobering and dignified environment of the bench,) that "we have suffered incalculably from the weak and vacillating course which has been taken with regard to Mexico," and that "the high responsibilities of our diplomatic intercourse with foreign nations were subordinated to partisan requirements, and we present to the world a humiliating spectacle of ineptitude, . . . and brave words have been stripped of their force by indecision."

Most of the democratic journals of the country are propounding question to Mr. Hughes now that he has been proclaimed the republican nominee for President. The Philadelphia Record suggests that the recent utterances of the candidate is the kind of talk best calculated to mollify Colonel Roosevelt and his followers, without at the same time alienating the German-American vote which the nomination of Hughes is intended to bring into the Republican fold. But the former Justice surely is intelligent enough to understand that he cannot hope to this line all through the campaign. He can denounce the foreign policy of the Wilson Administration to his heart's content, but the time will come—and soon—when generalities will not suffice and he will have to be specific. The voters will ask Candidate Hughes, as soon as he goes on the stump and gives them an opportunity to interrogate him:

"What would you have done, if you had been President, in handling the Mexican situation?"

"What would you have done, if you had been President, in dealing with German infractions of international law affecting American rights?"

Conceivably, only two answers are possible. Mr. Hughes would have done exactly what Woodrow Wilson has done, or he would have involved this country in war with Mexico and Germany. His criticism of President Wilson, if honest, rules out the former alternative. He would, then, have embarked upon two wars at once. If this is the case, he should have the moral and political courage to say so.
The people ought to know it.

Mr. Hughes cannot carry water on both shoulders for five months without spilling some. He cannot rub elbows with the people who want war with Germany and with the people who want us to be subservient to Germany. And even if he could, he would discover that he was still hobnobbing with a minority. The vast majority of the American people want to secure the observance of American rights without resort to force, if possible; and they have secured it through the firm and wise conduct of foreign relations by President Woodrow Wilson.

If patriotism is to be one of the issues of the coming campaign, it is up to Mr. Hughes to show wherein he is more patriotic than President Wilson. What is his conception of patriotism? What will he answer to the two questions that intelligent voters are sure to ask?

ALMOST A
PARALLEL.

The impetus of the Teutonic tides of invasion seem to have lost force everywhere except on the western front of operations. There the flood still surges imperiously against the barriers interposed by the French and British armies, but the headway it makes is so slow and intermittent

compensates the energy expended.
The declarations emanating from Berlin indicate the belief of the Kaiser that his conquests have already been such as to warrant the laying down of terms of peace to the nations allied against the Germanic league. This view of the case the four great powers arrayed in arms against the combination of which Germany is the backbone concur in repudiating. They claim that the reverses they have sustained in various quarters have had no bearing on the final result, that Germany is relatively weaker in every respect than when the hostilities began, that neither of the vital objects she has undertaken has been accomplished, that her resources have been seriously impaired, while those of her enemies are comparatively untouched, that her grand projects in Russia have been balked, that the Balkan campaign has been rendered absolutely fruitless by the counter-stroke at Salonika, that Turkey is crying for, instead of giving assistance, that Austria is hard beset to defend her own territories from Russian invasion and is drawing off her troops from the Italian frontier to meet the Russian hosts thundering at her own gateways, and that, in fact, Germany has delivered her bolt and from now on must adopt a policy of concentration on defensive lines, which will involve withdrawal from the distant fields into which a mistaken estimate of her own strength and that of her foes has led her.

The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot says the situation is not unlike that which confronted France little more than a century ago. Under Napoleon the legions of the Empire had achieved triumphs to which those of Germany within the past two years are nothing. They had swept over every country in Europe and had hoisted the Tricolor over every capital. The reign of every dynasty had been conditioned on subjection to conditions imposed by the conquerors and the monarchs who refused were deposed, and their crowns transferred to the brows of Frenchmen. In 1812 Napoleon was sovereign by virtue of the sword of all continental Europe and his will was law at Vienna, Berlin, Dresden, Rome, Madrid, Munich, everywhere except at London, and St.
Petersburg. In 1812 he marched against Russia with soldiers under his banners from every power enumerated above.

This torrent of invasion broke and was dissipated on the plains of Russia. A year later France paid the price for her lust for world dominion.
The wide diffusion of her foes which was at once the proof of and a necessity for maintaining her conquests, became the prime cause of her ruin.
With every foot of retirement foes sprung up in Napoleon's rear. France was isolated. She fell from a zenith of triumph which Germany, in the present conflict, has not even approximated, and she succumbed to the grim coercion of a pact in which Russia and Great Britain were the essential factors, a pact identical with that to which Russia, Great Britain and France are now parties—one for all, all for one, neither to sheathe the sword except by common agreement and after victory over the common enemy.

The parallel is not exact, but it is close enough to give pause to Germany's sanguine confidence that she has "the war won." While "England holds the sea and Russia is unconquer-ed," said Napoleon, "all that I have done is built on the sand." Reflection on this saying may well serve to shake the Emperor Wilhelm's confidence in the star of his destiny.

UNMASK, MR. HUGHES.

(Baltimore Sun)

In the name of publicity and sincerity we demand that Mr. Ex-Justice Hughes get a clean shave before he begins his campaign. The American people would like to look in the face of the man they are asked to vote for.

The face is almost invariably an index of character. It is possible that anyone looking at the shorn Mr.
Hughes could see at a glance, in the firm lines of the mouth, the determined set of the chin, that in him we have a superman, a titanic statesman to whom the settlement of the Mexican troubles and the controversies growing out of the great war would be as child's play. Kept in ignorance of this fact, a majority of American citizens probably will vote this fall for Mr. Wilson. Apprised of it, the vote for Mr. Hughes would be practically unanimous. Has the former Justice a moral right to flirt with defeat by maintaining those bizarre intricacies?

When heard were the fashion this demand could not properly have been made. Now that they are in campaign, it is essential that they be plied with.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Food riots raged in Vienna last night, according to an Exchange telegraph dispatch from Berlin, Saxony. Most of the rioters were women. When policemen tried to disperse them street fighting of great violence followed.

Canadian troops, in what the British official statement describes as a "gallant and successful assault," southeast of Zillibeke, recaptured a former British position over more than 1,500 yards. Notwithstanding a severe shelling, the Canadians retain the ground gained which is being consolidated.

Charles E. Hughes, yesterday in New York defined his attitude toward German-American support as one of "undiluted Americanism" in the first statement issued since his acceptance of the Republican nomination for President. He said: "I stated my position in my telegram to the convention. My attitude is one of undiluted Americanism, and anybody that supports me is supporting an out-and-out American policy, absolutely nothing else."

Official announcement was made by the National City Bank in New York yesterday of the closing of a loan of $50,000,000 to the Russian Government by a banking group consisting of the National City Bank, the Guaranty Trust Company, J. P. Morgan and Co., Kidder, Peabody and Co., and Lee, Higginson and Co. This group, it was stated, will establish in New York a credit of $50,000,000 to run for three years in favor of the Russian Government, and the Russian Government will establish in Petrograd a credit of 150,000,000 rubles in favor of the American group or at a fixed rate of 3 rubles to $1.
The interest rate of 6 1-2 per cent. on the credit will be paid by the borrowers in dollars at this centre.

One of the most daring larks of the season occurred in the inner harbor yesterday of Newport, R. I., just after the Fall River steamboat Pris-tilla came to her pier, when a young man and woman, the latter without suspense, jumped overboard from the second deck and were rescued by the crew, who lowered a lifeboat. Although they positively refused to disclose their identities, they are known to be prominent in society. The woman is said to be one of the best swimmers in the country and when she jumped overboard from the second deck her husband followed, fearing that she might be injured. The few persons on the pier at this time assert that the woman was wholly unaided when she performed her rick, and the man was scantily attired.

A SYMBOL OF HEALTH

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfills its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for seven years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, 63 years of age, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."
Ten years ago a friend told me to try Chamberlain's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.
I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it tosses them more good than any medicine they ever tried.
We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught.
Chamberlain's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.
It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.
Your druggist sells and recommends package to-day. W. C. W.
